

Norwest Rams Football & Cheer Athletes Code of Conduct

All athletes who choose to participate in the Norwest Rams Football & Cheer games and activities are representatives of the organization. With the privilege of participating come certain obligations and responsibilities. Each participant must agree to the standards set forth.

Acceptable standards of behavior include:

- Treating the opposition with respect
- Respect the judgment of officials and abide by the rules of the contest
- Play in a manner reflecting good citizenship and sportsmanship
- No foul or abusive language
- Racial or offensive slurs will not be tolerated

As an individual, I will: develop my skills to the best of my abilities and give my best effort at all times; compete within the rules; respect opponents, coaches, referees, teammates and parents.

As a team member, I will: place team goals ahead of personal goals; be a positive influence on team members; follow team rules established by the head coach, Norwest Rams and the G.P.S.Y.F.L.

Norwest Rams Football & Cheer is an important part of an athlete's physical, social and emotional development. Participating in the Rams football & cheer program teaches leadership, integrity, respect and fair play.

These rules apply at all and any events for the Norwest Rams, including fundraisers, games and or social media.

Any athlete who does not follow the rules will be subject to disciplinary action by the head coach and the Norwest Rams.

As a parent registering your child in the Norwest Rams Football & Cheer, please review the code of conduct with your athlete.
